University of Instruction Course Competencies

Joint Courses

PHA 1106: Masonic Service I

Upon completion of this course, University participants should be able to:

1. Provide service learning for the community

2. Practice skills in developing and efficiently executing a service project

3. Engage the lodge or chapter regarding community service events.

4. Participate in group presentations or masonic educational cases to highlight the importance of the aforementioned competencies.

5. Take a summative exam to assess competency comprehension.